

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man; and,

WHEREAS, Maurice Bergh was elected to the board of directors at Codington-Clark Electric Cooperative, Inc., in Watertown, South Dakota, in 1958; and,

WHEREAS, Maurice was elected to the South Dakota Rural Electric Association Board of Directors in 1967; and,

WHEREAS, Maurice was elected as president of the South Dakota Rural Electric Association Board of Directors in 1980, and will resign from the position on September 23; and,

WHEREAS, After resigning as president, Maurice will continue to serve as a director on the South Dakota Rural Electric Association and the Codington-Clark Electric Board; and,

WHEREAS, Maurice has been an inspiration to his many friends by being a wonderful husband to his wife, Lucile, and a loving parent to his two daughters and one son; and,

WHEREAS, On behalf of a state grateful for the benefits derived from Maurice Bergh's years as a productive and outstanding citizen of South Dakota:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 23, 1988, as in South Dakota, and I personally commend and salute Maurice for his hard work and dedication to the State of South Dakota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-First Day of September, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR
